INTRODUCTION.

This Institution, having undergone a thorough reorganization, offers superior inducements to all persons desiring to secure a complete education for their sons or wards.

The scholastic year is divided into two terms :

1. From the first Wednesday in October until the fifteenth of February.
2. From the sixteenth of February until the second Wednesday in July.

The method of instruction is by explanations and text books, accompanied by daily and close examinations on the portions assigned to be prepared. The books required will be furnished in Chestertown at reasonable rates. The organization of the several departments, and of the various schools under them, will be as follows :

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

In this department will be taught the various languages, Ancient and Modern, as hereinafter specified, special attention being paid to the structure of each language, and to the etymological changes peculiar to each.

I. School of Latin.

The subjects taught in this school are embraced in the following text books, or selections from them :

1. Preparatory Department.—Smith's Principia Latina, Part I., Bingham's Latin Grammar, and Cæsar de Bello Gallico.
2. Freshman Class.—Virgil, Horace, and Arnold's Latin Prose Composition.

3. Sophomore Class.—Livy, Tacitus, Cicero, ad Diversos, and Original Exercises in Latin Prose Composition.
4. Junior Class.—Terence and Juvenal. Grammars—Gildersleeve's and Zumpt's, for reference during Sophomore and Junior years. Lexicons—Andrew's or Leveretts', recommended. History—Schmitz' Manual of Ancient History.

II. School of Greek.

The studies pursued in this school will be comprised in the following text books, or selections from them :

1. Preparatory Department.—McClintock's First Greek Book.
2. Freshman Class.—McClintock's Second Greek Book, Xenophon's Anabasis, Homer, and Herodotus.
3. Sophomore Class.—Arnold's Greek Prose Composition, Euripides, Thucydides, and Sophocles.
4. Junior Class.—Original exercises in Greek Composition, Demosthenes and Plato. Grammars—Kuhner's and Hadley's for reference. History—Schmitz' Manual of Ancient History. Lexicons—Liddell and Scott's.

III. School of Modern Languages.

The subjects taught in this school are the French, German, and Spanish languages. The following text books, or selections from them, will be used :

1. FRENCH—Junior Class.—Fasquelle's or Schele de Vere's Grammar, and Schele de Vere's French Reader. Senior Class.—Voltaire's Charles XII., Molière, Racine, Saintine's Picciola, and Spier's and Surenné's Dictionary.
2. GERMAN—Junior Class.—Woodbury's Grammar. Senior Class.—Heydenreich's Elementary Reader, Schiller and Adler's Dictionary.
3. SPANISH—Junior Class.—Schele de Vere's Grammar, Velasquez' Reader, Don Quixote, and Seoane's Dictionary (optional).

IV. School of English.

Instruction in the subjects embraced in this school will constitute an important feature in the College course. Exercises will be given weekly in Composition and Declamation. The text books will be as follows :

1. Preparatory Department.—GEOGRAPHY—Cornell's. ENGLISH GRAMMAR—Bingham's.
2. Freshman Class.—RHETORIC—Boyd's.
3. Sophomore Class.—HISTORY—Worcester's Outlines of Ancient and Modern.
4. Senior Class.—MENTAL PHILOSOPHY—Haven's.

SCIENTIFIC DEPARTMENT.I. School of Mathematics.

In this school will be taught the various subjects belonging to a complete Mathematical education, such as will prepare young men for any business or scientific employments. The text books used will be :

1. Preparatory Department. — ARITHMETIC — Smith's new. ALGEBRA—Robinson's.
2. Freshman's Class.—ALGEBRA—(Continued). GEOMETRY—Robinson's.
3. Sophomore Class.—TRIGONOMETRY — Robinson's. SURVEYING AND NAVIGATION—Robinson's.
4. Junior Class.—ANALYTICAL GEOMETRY—Loomis'. DIFFERENTIAL AND INTEGRAL CALCULUS—Loomis'.

II. School of Natural Sciences.

Under this head will be taught the various subjects connected with Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, such as the Laws of Motion, the Resolution and Composition of Forces, Statics, and Dynamics, &c., &c., on the one hand, and the Laws of Chemical Equivalents, Chemical Combination, Inorganic and Organic Chemistry, on the other. The text books will be :

DEGREES.—These are—1. That of Proficient in certain special departments of a school. 2. That of Bachelor of Arts, which is conferred after satisfactory examinations upon Latin and Greek, French and German, Mathematics, and the Natural Sciences.

L O C A T I O N .

The college buildings are situated on a beautiful eminence, a half mile north of Chestertown, from which there is a fine view of the town and river, and of the country around. The past history of the College goes to prove that the situation is a very healthy one, as no death from sickness has occurred among the students for many years past.

E X P E N S E S .

The following is an estimate of the expenses of a student for the Session of forty weeks, exclusive of the cost of text books :

Board, per week, including diet and attendance.....	$4 00
Room Rent, per session.....	5 00
Fuel for Recitation Rooms.....	4 00
TUITION—English.....	40 00
English and Classics or Modern Languages.....	50 00
English, Classics and Modern Languages	60 00
Washing can be had for $1.25 per month.

No portion of the tuition fees is refunded on account of withdrawal before the close of the Session—unless the withdrawal be rendered necessary by ill health, and occur before the first of March. All the foregoing items are to be paid in advance, except board and washing. One-fourth of the board, ($40,) is required on admission, and the balance in equal instalments, at ten, twenty and thirty weeks thereafter.

Morality and Religion.—These are regarded as the foundation and indispensable concomitants of education. The discipline is sedulously administered with a view to confirm integrity, and to maintain a sacred regard for truth.

Privileged Students.—By an agreement made with the State, one student from each of the counties on the Eastern Shore is received free of all charge, except for washing and lights.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

With the view of extending the benefits of the institution to persons of limited means, or to any others who may wish to avail themselves of it, the Board of Visitors have offered to receive students free of all charges for tuition for five years, upon the payment of seventy-five dollars, and for three years, upon the payment of fifty.

All persons desirous of securing an education for their sons on remarkably advantageous terms, are invited to avail themselves of this offer.

Certificates of scholarship will be furnished to all who shall pay either of the above sums, which will entitle them to tuition for the specified time.

All communications on this subject should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board.

The Post Office is "Chestertown."
